Thursday afternoon Mrs. C. H. Conner entertained a few friends at a pleasant sewing party, and served a delicious and elaborate lunch. Her table was artistically decorated in red and white.

An enjoyable feature of the afternoon was several musical selections played by their composer, Mrs. Ida McCune Donovan.

Monday evening Mrs. Hodgins was hostess at a very pleasant dinner in honor of Mrs. J. C. Baldrige, formerly of this city but now living in Los Angeles. The guests were Mr. J. C. Baldrige, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Strong and Mrs. Ada Bittner.

The Ten Dons are entertaining their wives at dinner at the Alvarado hotel this evening, after which they will adjourn to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Perry at the Indian school, and enjoy a special program filled with several surprises which have been planned especially for this occasion.

Last evening a reception was given at the Gold and Broadway Church of Christ in honor of Rev. and Mrs. J. Madison Williams of Des Moines, Iowa, who are visiting their son, Rev. Herman P. Williams.

Rev. J. Madison Williams will hold revival services at the church next week.

The eighth grade pupils celebrated Lincoln's birthday by wearing costumes appropriate to the time in which he lived. There was no set program, but several music numbers were rendered and a clever little sketch given.

Grunsfeld Anniversary Event.

Thursday evening one of the most enjoyable and elaborate events of the season took place when Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Grunsfeld celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary.

The guests gathered at 9 o'clock at the Alvarado hotel and soon after they entered the dining room to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March played by the Cavanaugh-Fuhrmeyer orchestra. There a dinner, which was a triumph of culinary art, was served, while the orchestra played "Star Spangled Banner" in honor of Lincoln's birthday, and other selections.

Decorations were very effective. A profusion of roses, carnations and ferns, significant of the wedding day were arranged most artistically. At midnight the guests adjourned to the Alfred Grunsfeld home on West Central avenue, where dancing was enjoyed until early.

There were sixty-five guests present.

Reception for the New Bishop and His Wife.

One of the really important affairs of the week was the reception given Monday evening at the home of Mrs. G. L. Brooks by St. John's parish in honor of Bishop and Mrs. Frederick Howden.

A profusion of pink and white carnations and roses made the drawing room and library fragrant, while in the dining room there were sweet peas. Smilax was festooned from the chandelier to the corners of the rooms. A huge bowl of sweet peas surrounded by a wreath of smilax and scattered flowers made a lovely centerpiece for the table, which was set with beautiful silver and cut glass, and brightened with shaded candles.

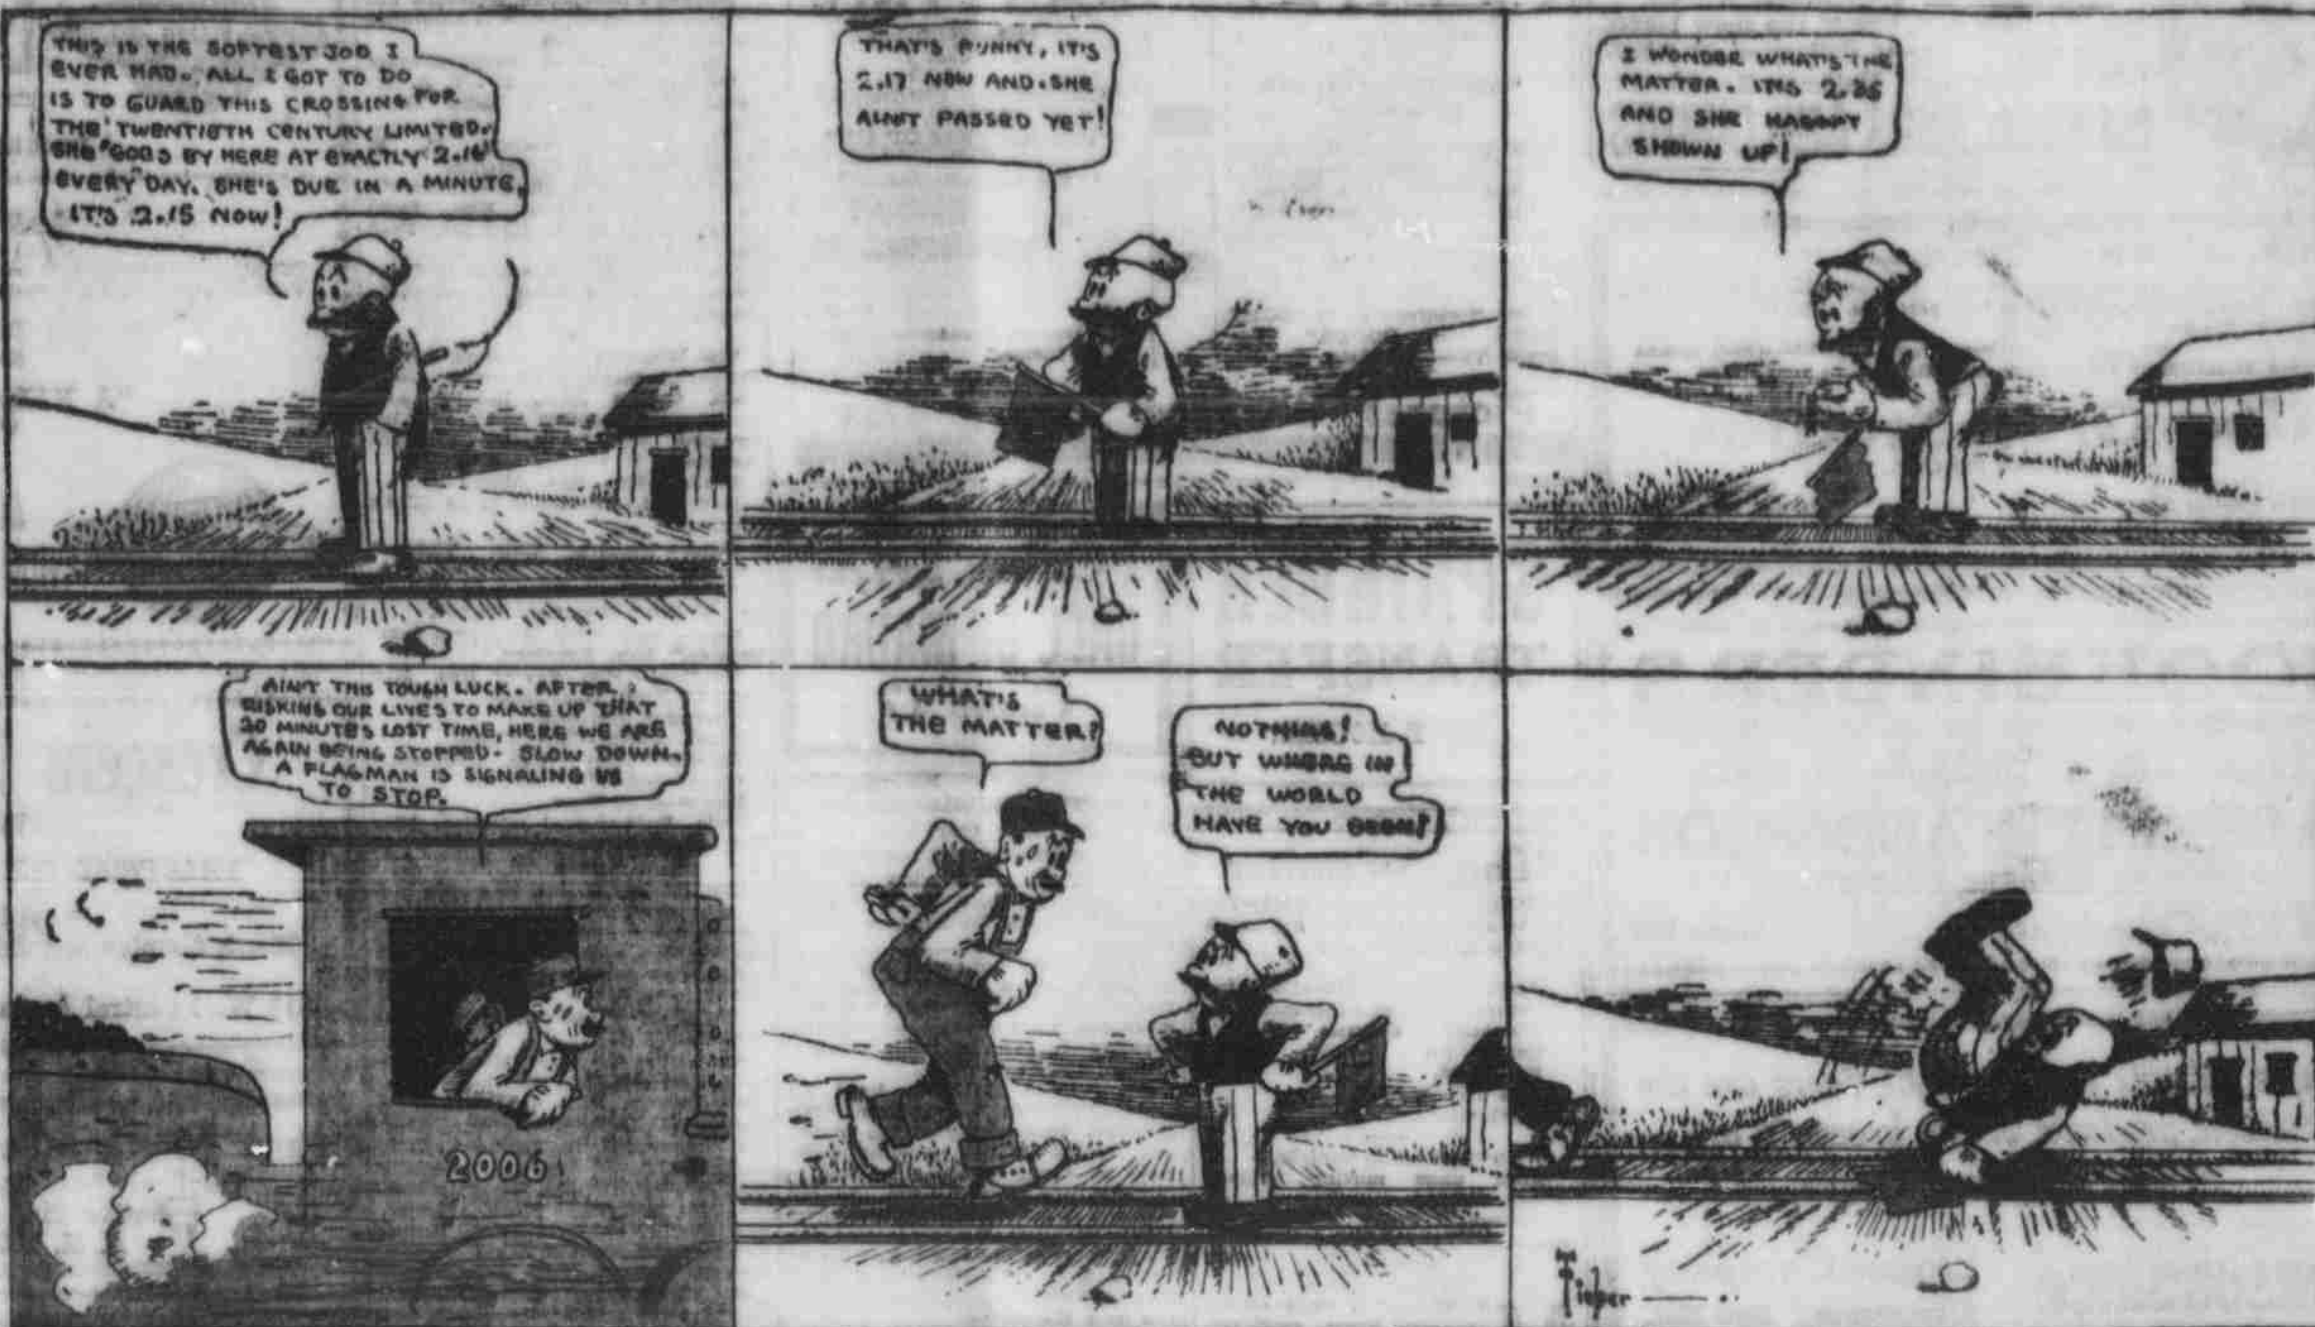

The Diamond orchestra furnished pleasing music throughout the evening. Mrs. Brooks was assisted in introducing Bishop and Mrs. Howden by Archbishop and Mrs. Warren, Mrs. E. R. Edgar and Mrs. W. Y. Walton were in the dining room and St. Margaret's Guild served the lovely refreshments. Mrs. Raymond Stamm and Mrs. E. J. Alger presided at the punch bowl.

Others assisting were Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Wainley, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Keen, Mr. and Mrs. George Klock, Mrs. Frederick Winn, Mrs. G. Traversa, Mrs. T. Jenks and Mrs. Amado Chavez.

A Cupid Party.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Lutheran church gave a "Cupid Party" Wednesday evening February 11 at the Berger home, 515 North Fourth street. The house was artistically decorated with hearts and cupid and a program of games suitable to the occasion was successfully carried out. A heart hunt, playing hearts and comic valentines furnished plenty of amusement. Miss Maude Still provided herself an expert as a "mender of hearts" while Joe Schreiber was most successful in placing comic valentines. There were also
